County Wedding Magazines offers plenty of options for your business to reach local couples planning their weddings morning, noon and night.

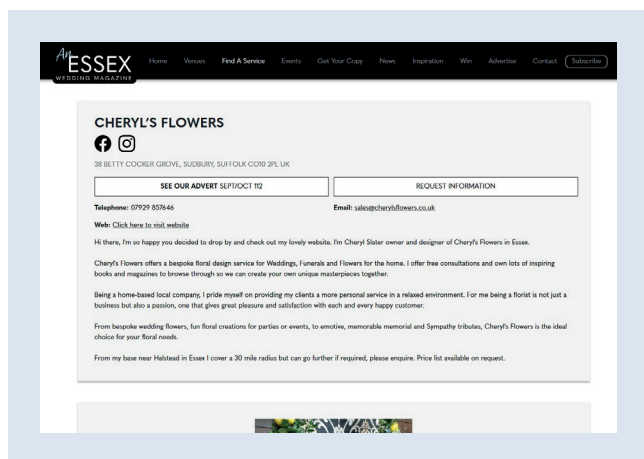

Each of our 19 magazines has a supporting website along with our group domain (www.county.wedding), containing local news stories, wedding show and event listings, competitions, and our comprehensive 'Find A Service' wedding service directory.

You'll receive a listing on our supplier directory when you become an advertiser with us and it will remain live on the website for as long as you are an active advertiser. It will include your company name, address, phone number, email address, website links, any social media links along with supporting text and imagery.

Premium Directory Listings

A standard Find A Service (FAS) entry

Turn your entry into a Premium Directory Listing (PDL), which will give your business 12-months' worth of prominent exposure within our supplier directory. PDLs will be pinned at the top of your chosen category listing(s) giving you a competitive head-start over your competitors. You'll have increased social media links for YouTube, LinkedIn, Trustpilot, Vimeo and TripAdvisor, as well as imagery and video content which users can play and watch.

Three small images showing wedding venues: a long table, a garden, and a hall.

October/November 2018

Anyone who knows me knows that I'm a devoted sun-worshipper. Any little patch of sunlight, and I'll be in it – so it may come as a surprise that I'm actually kinda looking forward to autumn. That's mainly because I have two weddings to go to! One is in a gorgeous rustic barn in Lancashire; the other is a small laid-back affair in my native Essex. The two settings couldn't be more different, and it got me thinking about all the wonderful places in which couples can tie the knot. To see our pick of the region's best venues, turn to page 19.

For any of you lovely readers who are getting married next summer, you've probably started thinking about the one. No, not your partner – the dress! Our fabulous fashion editor, Claire Ridley, has pulled together an amazing selection of swoon-worthy gowns on page 77, all taking inspiration from a bygone era. We're lucky enough to have a host of talented and creative people in the region, so it makes sense that couples are embracing the trend for locally sourced products when it comes to their weddings. Turn to page 65 for our Handmade in Bristol & Somerset feature.
